

Announcement of the 8th Workshop in the Series "Urban Air Quality and Traffic" in Paris, October 6 – 7, 2009:

"Multiphase Reactivity of Atmospheric VOCs and its Impact on Climate, Health and Materials"
(jointly organised with the EUROCHAMP-2 Project)

Workshop Venue: Ecole Normale Supérieure – Salle Dussane
45 rue d'Ulm, Paris

Workshop dates in short:

Oct 5, 17h Get together; Oct 6: Lectures 9 – 18h, evening dinner; Oct 7: 9-18 h lectures and final discussion

Organising Committee:

K. H. Becker, G. Le Bras, J.-F. Doussin, H. Puxbaum, T. Wallington, P. Wiesen

The workshop is intended to present overview lectures of recent research in the field of volatile organic compounds with a special emphasis on chemical reactivity which leads to their emission, degradation, phase transfer and secondary pollutants formation. Impact on climate, health and materials of these processes will be documented with results from field studies, laboratory work and modelling activities.

The workshop will take place at Ecole Normale Supérieure in the heart of Latin Quarter.

Evening events: Oct. 5, Get together at a nearby Parisian Café
Oct 6: Invited joint Dinner (invited by CEFIC).

There is no fee for the meeting. Travel and lodging will be on own costs.

Travel and lodging:

Paris is a busy tourist place all the year round, thus it is recommended, to book flights and lodging as early as possible (see hotel list below).

Cordially, for the Committee:
Karl-Heinz Becker, Jean-Francois Doussin and
George LeBras
